

Partnership Account.

The balance sheet of partnership business.

Balance sheet of partnership is a summary of the assets and liabilities of the partnership it portrays.

The balance of partnership differs from that of sole proprietorship in the following ways:

- a. It shows the capital contribution for each partners differently.
- b. It has partners current account balances in place of net profit