

* forest management

forest - Definition - it can be defined as areas of land covered with trees and either growing wild or planted for some forestry - can be defined as the management of forests and forest trees found in the forest are Iroko, Obe, Nigerian Walnut, Ebony, Camwood, Opepe and Abura.

forest reserves - meaning: are large where plants, either growing naturally or specially preserved by government for some forest reserves in Nigeria are Mamu River forest reserve in Anambra State, Ono forest reserves in Ogun State, Anar's forest in Kogi State, Sangha River forest reserve in Plateau State, Zamfara forest reserve in Zamfara State.

Importance or uses of the forest provision of food: Swamps provide for fish, meat and vegetables. provision of fuel: Less forest wood Source of fuel used for cooking and